Calling Attention Matters of Urgent Public Importance:

re :— harassment and forcible collection of levy by officers in Sagar Taluk.

SRI KAGODU THIMMAPPA (Sagar).—I call the attention of the Hon'ble Minister for Food & Civil Supplies to the harassment and forcible collection of levy by the officers in Sagar Taluk.

SMT E. E. VAZ (Minister for Food & Civil Supplies).—: I wish to make the following statement :

The levy demand of Sagar Taluk is 40,000 quintals. As on 1st February 1976 the levy collected is 23,441 quintals and as on 19th February 1976 the levy collected is 26,872 quintals. As harvest in most places of the taluk was over and there were pockets where not even one third of the levy demand had been collected stringent measures had to be taken by the local officers against farmers who had not surrendered levy payment.

In some villages, it was found that many small holders who had not tendered their levy had kept their stock in the houses of local land-lords and others who had cleared their levy. Therefore, local officers, had to undertake a house-to-house search to unearth hidden stocks. None of them were found to have given any declaration as required under the declaration of stocks orders. When the Enforcement officers explained their obligation, the stock holders voluntarily surrendered some quantity as levy keeping sufficient quantity for their personal consumption, to prevent seizure and possible confiscation of their stocks. Voluntary offers even after search, which should have been seized, were accepted and collection accepted and collections accounted towards levy. No harassment has therefore been caused.
